COPE'S TOP BRASS MEET TO PLOT PARTY'S NEW COURSE

For immediate release:

The COPE Congress Executive Committee (Top 5) is meeting for two days this weekend to assess the outcome of the elections.

The committee consists of President Mosioua Lekota, Treasurer Teboho Loate, acting General Secretary Erick Mohlapamaswi, Deputy acting General-Secretary Arthur Ketile, President Mosiuoa Lekota and acting National Chairperson Pakes Dikgetsi.

In addition, the CEC will decide on COPE's stance and course of action, reposition the party for the future, and map out strategies to navigate the current political developments in the country.

"We believe that the party still has a significant role to play in national politics," said Dikgetsi.

Let's Build Prosperity for All.
